

Dear Mr. Stone

On the letter about Stafford's not being game. The only thing I can say about that is, that you have to see it for your self. Ringo or Prince will not and did not try to fight any thing that did not have 4 legs and would fight back. Both dogs loved people. You know about Ringo. He will be 7 yrs. soon, and last week he went 15 min. with a 14 mo. pit bull that had 5 lbs on him. They stopped it just as Ringo was getting to him. Ringo has broken teeth but still cut him up, and did not take much him self. If the Bants can come here and make Ringo bite them in any way or if Fred can stop him with out killing him I'll give them what it costs to get here and back. How is that. Prince went across the pit three days befor he died of heart worms and his tongue turned blue just from running across and could not take hold. I picked him up right away. He was a house dog and rode on a school buss in Canada. Write Dave Gardiner Box 5 Dundas Ont. I have a pit bull bitch that went 20 min. at 48 lbs. with a 54 lb. male and was trying to kill him. My 4-year old daughter can take a bone away from her and she plays with my soon, cat, or anything that will play or not start the fight. I have a male that will kill anything man or beast but any child or woman can take him for a walk or make him get in his house. I'm sick of those people who talk about things that they just do not know anything about. They should keep 10 or 20 pit bulls and staffords or go to dog mans yards and get to know all sides of different kinds of temperment in P.B. and Staffords also how they ~~they~~ are raised. Most all dogs that are encouraged as pups to snap or bite will get worse with age. All bull dogs will try to get away with as much as they can.

Some of the best fighting dogs around are house dogs or go with their owner where ever he goes. I just can't believe it.
Why do they want people to read all of that B.S. about kill, blood, savage beast. The first thing you know is, all of them will start to put to sleep any pup that will not stop fighting with the rest. I guess that would be the fastest way to get a show dog. I just hate to see any breed completely ruined, Its like the man said, 1 out of 6 is pretty good so why do they try to make things harder by breeding backwards. Thats about it Steve. I've got the deer from the boys. They'll be sent next week. I'll write more later.

Jim
